

Buffalo Section Tour & Presentation

Joint with the Power Energy, Industrial Applications, Computer, Control Systems, Microwave Theory & Techniques, Antennas & Propagation, Engineering Management, Communications, Young Professionals Societies, Consultants Network, and Women In Engineering.

Saturday May 11, 2019 at 10 a.m.

“Paul’s Organic Farm ”

8213 Center Road
Holland, NY 14080

Aquaponics/Greenhouse The aquaponics/greenhouse tour explains how the entire system works, from culling the fish waste to filtering the water, fish waste as fertilizer, myths and truths about aquaponics, ebb & flow hydroponics, and where the industry is heading.

Farm The farm tour explains the difference between organic and inorganic gardening, what’s involved in preparing different fields for different crops, irrigation, fertigation, pollination, and the challenges of treating pests organically.

Wind Power The wind power tour explains everything involved in erecting a turbine, including it’s operation, the federal and state benefits available, permitting issues, remote net metering, and viability.

Lunch afterward at Pasquale’s Restaurant
242 Main Street,
East Aurora, NY 14052

Order off the menu $10 per person

Reservations by May 8, 2019

Judy Moskal at 689-6689

jmmoskal@ieee.org

**Please honor your reservations. The cost of no shows is borne by the Section****