IEEE Signal Processing Society – Call for Papers

The Western New York Image Processing Workshop (WNYIPW) is a venue to promote image processing research in our area and to facilitate interaction between academic researchers, industry researchers, and students. The workshop comprises a single track of oral presentations and possibly a poster session.

Topics include, but are not limited to: • Image and Video Compression • Image Rendering • Image and Video Forensics • Image and Video Processing • Image Formation • Image and Color Science • Image Retrieval • Computer Vision • Non-Impact Printing. Applications include biomedical, consumer devices, security, surveillance, document imaging, and other applications.

Paper Submission: Prospective authors are invited to send an email with the title and abstract of their presentation to Dhiraj Joshi: dhirajjoshi16@gmail.com.

To encourage student participation, a best student paper award will be given.

Submission of title and abstract: August 21, 2009

Notification of Acceptance: August 31, 2009

Submission of full paper (4 pages): September 17, 2009

Fees are kept to a minimum (tentatively $20 for IEEE or IS&T members) and are primarily intended to cover the costs associated with holding the workshop.

The workshop, now in its 12th year, is jointly sponsored by the Rochester chapter of the IEEE Signal Processing Society and the Rochester chapter of the Society for Imaging Science and Technology. The workshop is supported by the IEEE SPS, IS&T, the Center for Electronic Imaging and Systems and by a generous gift from Xerox.

Organizing Committee: • David Odgers, Xerox Corporation; • Andrew Gallagher, Eastman Kodak Company; • Michel Molaire, Eastman Kodak Company; • Dhiraj Joshi, Eastman Kodak Company; • John Handley, Xerox Corporation; • David Coumou, MKS Instruments, Inc.
